

Woope Sakowin (Seven Laws) Regional Training

Register or learn more: www.tie.net/woope

Each training will run from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM (lunch on your own) at TIE (Technology & Innovation in Education) - 1925 Plaza Blvd, Rapid City, SD

Only $65 per person for a full day training! Choose one of the following dates:

1. Friday, January 26 (This session will also discuss how administrators can support their staff and create buy-in for integrating the Woope Sakowin into classroom practice.)
2. Saturday, January 27 or
3. Saturday, February 3

When students have a choice, they feel empowered to make the right decisions. When students are allowed a voice, they feel validated to take ownership in their learning. When students feel safe, they feel brave enough to tackle academic and personal challenges. When teachers are compassionate and willing to provide these things for their students, classroom management becomes less about discipline and more about learning and teaching.

Please register to join us for an interactive, yet deeply reflective, one-day training on the Woope Sakowin. This workshop will provide teachers with the tools to transform their classrooms into positive, safe and brave environments, foster trusting relationships and teach valuable life skills.

Topics covered include:

- Importance of restorative practices in the classroom
- Learning and the brain
- Resources and tools for culturally responsive teaching
- Resources and tools for trauma-informed practices
- Curriculum integration
- Specific strategies for classroom management for K-12 classrooms

Workshop Outcomes:

- define "classroom management"
- discuss the classroom management process
- differentiate among "rules," "routines," and "expectations"
- review the learning process and the brain
- define, translate and provide examples of Woope Sakowin
- reflect on the classroom management process and personal responsibility to students
- align classroom routines, rules, expectations to Woope Sakowin
- learn strategies that incorporate the Woope Sakowin into daily practice
- Participants will leave feeling validated, motivated and inspired to make positive change in their teaching practices
